Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday and Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. The people acclaim him as king crying out, "Hosanna! "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel." (Jn 12:13) Hosanna is a word of praise and adoration. The people are praising God for Jesus' entry into Jerusalem.

Look how he enters Jerusalem, he is riding on a donkey, which is very significant. The donkey is a humble animal, as it carries its passenger or cargo from one point to the next. It is not an animal of war. Yes, it may be used to carry supplies, but it was not an attack animal. If you think back in history, have you ever seen an image of a chariot with a fierce warrior being pulled by a team of donkeys? No! The donkey is the animal of peace. If a king came into a city riding on a horse it meant he came to bring war. However, if the king came riding on a donkey it meant that he came to bring peace.

Jesus comes riding on a donkey to bring peace. By this choice of animal, he states that I am not here to overthrow the Romans, or start an insurrection, but rather I am here to bring peace. After all, he is the Prince of Peace, the King of the universe.

That same Prince of Peace, will be nailed to a tree and crucified later that same week as the same people who yelled out Hosanna, praising and glorifying God, now cry out, Crucify him. Nailed to the cross is a sign that reads, Jesus Christ King of the Jews.

Through it all, it is Christ who is accomplishing his work of salvation. He takes upon himself the sin of the world, and death itself, as he allows everything to pass. And then it is he himself who gives up his spirit. Notice it does not read they killed him, or they took his life. No, he freely gave his life even to the moment that he gave up his spirit.

Through the whole Passion it is Christ who loves, as he is falsely accused, as he slapped, beaten, interrogated, scourged, and crucified. He remains the peaceful presence of divine love in the midst of the chaos, turbulence and frenzy of sin and violence. His response to all that is happening is love. Love is manifest on the cross, a love greater than any other. It is the complete gift of self from the Son to the Father.

In this week to come we celebrate this great work of Christ in the greatest liturgy of the year, the Triduum. It literally means three days, it is the celebration of Holy Thursday and the Last Supper, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil. Come to the Triduum! This is the most beautiful liturgy of the year.

Peace,
Fr. Chris

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Este fin de semana celebramos el Domingo de Ramos y la entrada triunfal de Jesús en Jerusalén. El pueblo lo aclama como rey gritando: "¡Hosanna! "Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor, el rey de Israel". (Jn 12,13) Hosanna es una palabra de alabanza y adoración. El pueblo alaba a Dios por la entrada de Jesús en Jerusalén.

Fíjate cómo entra en Jerusalén, va montado en un burro, lo cual es muy significativo. El burro es un animal humilde, pues lleva a su pasajero o carga de un punto a otro. No es un animal de guerra. Sí, puede servir para llevar mercancías, pero no es un animal de ataque. Si pensamos en la historia, ¿hemos visto alguna vez la imagen de un carro con un guerrero feroz tirado por una yunta de burros? No. El burro es el animal de la paz. Si un rey llegaba a una ciudad montado a caballo, significaba que venía a traer la guerra. Sin embargo, si el rey venía montado en un burro, significaba que venía a traer la paz.

Jesús viene montado en un burro para traer la paz. Con esta elección del animal, afirma que no vengo a derrocar a los romanos, ni a iniciar una insurrección, sino que vengo a traer la paz. Al fin y al cabo, es el Príncipe de la Paz, el Rey del universo.

Ese mismo Príncipe de la Paz, será clavado en un madero y crucificado más tarde esa misma semana, mientras el mismo pueblo que gritaba Hosanna, alabando y glorificando a Dios, ahora grita: Crucifícalo. Clavado en la cruz hay un cartel que dice: Jesucristo Rey de los Judíos.

A través de todo esto, es Cristo quien lleva a cabo su obra de salvación. Él toma sobre sí el pecado del mundo, y la muerte misma, mientras permite que todo pase. Y luego es él mismo quien entrega su espíritu. Notemos que no dice que lo mataron, o que le quitaron la vida. No, él dio libremente su vida hasta el momento en que entregó su espíritu.

A lo largo de toda la Pasión es Cristo quien ama, mientras es acusado falsamente, mientras es abofeteado, golpeado, interrogado, azotado y crucificado. Sigue siendo la presencia pacífica del amor divino en medio del caos, la turbulencia y el frenesí del pecado y la violencia. Su respuesta a todo lo que sucede es el amor. El amor se manifiesta en la cruz, un amor más grande que cualquier otro. Es la entrega total del Hijo al Padre.

En esta semana que comienza celebramos esta gran obra de Cristo en la mayor liturgia del año, el Triduo. Literalmente significa tres días, es la celebración del Jueves Santo y la Última Cena, el Viernes Santo y la Vigilia Pascual. ¡Ven al Triduo! Es la liturgia más hermosa del año.

Paz,
Fr. Chris

The last week of Lent (P Mark Zacker)

If you've ever run a race, you know that the home stretch is not the time to take your foot off the gas. It's time to give it everything you've got, to overcome the fatigue and pain to make sure you finish what you set out to accomplish. Christ's entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday marks the beginning of his "final journey": his passion, his death and resurrection, the completion of his redemptive mission. Jesus knows what his enemies plan for him, but he does not hide from them. He enters Jerusalem to the praise of the public. He commits to completing the task before him.

As Holy Week begins, we enter the final stretch of our Lenten season and our preparation for Easter. No matter how your Lenten disciplines have been going up to this point, now is the time to put the pedal to the metal. Now is the time to rededicate yourself to prayer, penance and almsgiving. Now is the time to make sure we finish well the journey we undertook together almost 40 days ago.

Instead of looking back, let's look ahead to next week, our final stretch of Lent.

La recta final de cuaresma (P Mark Zacker)

Si alguna vez has corrido una carrera, sabes que la recta final no es el momento de quitar el pie del acelerador. Es el momento de dar todo lo que tienes, de superar la fatiga y el dolor para asegurarte de terminar lo que te propusiste lograr. La entrada de Cristo en Jerusalén el Domingo de Ramos marca el comienzo de su "recorrido final": su pasión, muerte y resurrección, la finalización de su misión de redención. Jesús sabe lo que sus enemigos planean para él, pero no se esconde de ellos. Entra en Jerusalén para la alabanza del público. Se compromete a completar la tarea que tiene por delante.

Al comenzar la Semana Santa, entramos en la recta final de nuestra temporada de Cuaresma y nuestra preparación para la Pascua. No importa cómo le haya ido con sus disciplinas de Cuaresma hasta este punto, ahora es el momento de pisar el acelerador a fondo. Ahora es el momento de volver a dedicarse a la oración, la penitencia y la limosna. Ahora es el momento de asegurarnos de terminar bien el viaje que emprendimos juntos hace casi 40 días.

En lugar de mirar hacia atrás, miremos hacia la próxima semana, nuestra recta final de Cuaresma.
