Parish Prayer Basket
Canasta de Oración Parroquial

We have a Parish Prayer Basket at the back of the church. Next to the basket are cards that you can write names of the sick and the deceased members of our families and place them in the Prayer Basket. At weekend Masses, the basket will be brought forward during the Offertory and placed at the foot of the altar, entrusting every intention to the Lord. During the week, the basket will be in the Adoration Chapel so others can pray for your intentions. As one family in Christ, we lift and care for each other, and one of the greatest gifts we can give is the gift of prayer.

---

Tenemos una Canasta de Oración Parroquial en la parte trasera de la iglesia. Junto a la canasta se encuentran tarjetas en las que podrán escribir los nombres de sus enfermos y difuntos y colocarlas en la Canasta de Oración. En las Misas del fin de semana, la canasta se llevará al frente durante el Ofertorio y se colocará al pie del altar, confiando cada intención al Señor. Durante la semana, la canasta estará en la Capilla de Adoración para que otros puedan rezar por sus intenciones. Como una familia en Cristo, nos levantamos y cuidamos unos a otros, y uno de los mayores regalos que podemos dar es el regalo de la oración.

From The Priest.

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, the Church, through its liturgy and, in particular, the scriptural readings, encourages us to reflect on the "Last Things": death, judgment, heaven, and hell.

In the first reading, from the Book of Proverbs, the passage powerfully speaks of the value and dignity of manual work, the importance of charity, and respect for all, regardless of their role in life. The psalmist reiterates the dignity of work, self-sufficiency, providing for one's family, and living in awe of the Lord. In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that if we live our lives in the light of Christ, we have no reason to fear the coming reign of God. In the Gospel, Jesus uses the parable of the talents to show the importance of making the best use of what we have been given for the benefit of others.

Through parables, Jesus taught his disciples that although people have different abilities and talents, the important thing is what one does with what one has been given. The parable makes clear that no one is expected to do more than is humanly possible. However, everyone is expected to use their abilities and talents to make a positive difference.

We are all called upon to build the Kingdom of God on earth. From those who have been given much, much will be expected. From those who have been given less, less will be expected. But God has expectations of everyone! No one is excused from the task of making the world a better place. The parable concludes with a gentle warning upon those who excuse themselves and make no attempt to build the kingdom: Jesus said, "To those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance. But from those who have nothing, even what little they have will be taken away" (Matthew 25:29).

Today, let us ask our Lord to open our hearts and show us how to use the talents we have been given.

Fr. Jomi Joseph

Carta Del Sacerdote.

A medida que nos acercamos al final del año litúrgico, la Iglesia, a través de su liturgia y, en particular, de las lecturas de las Sagradas Escrituras, nos invita a reflexionar sobre las “Postrimerías”: la muerte, el juicio, el cielo y el infierno.

En la primera lectura, tomada del Libro de los Proverbios, el pasaje nos habla de manera profunda sobre el valor y la dignidad del trabajo manual, la importancia de la caridad y el respeto hacia todas las personas, sin importar su función en la vida. El salmista reafirma la dignidad del trabajo, la importancia de valerse por uno mismo, de proveer para la familia y de vivir en el temor reverente del Señor. En la segunda lectura, San Pablo nos recuerda que, si vivimos nuestras vidas a la luz de Cristo, no tenemos razón para temer la llegada del Reino de Dios. En el Evangelio, Jesús utiliza la parábola de los talentos para enseñarnos la importancia de aprovechar al máximo los dones que hemos recibido para el bien de los demás.

A través de las parábolas, Jesús enseñó a sus discípulos que, aunque las personas tienen diferentes capacidades y talentos, lo verdaderamente importante es lo que cada uno hace con lo que ha recibido. La parábola deja claro que no se espera que nadie haga más de lo que humanamente es posible. Sin embargo, sí se espera que todos utilicen sus capacidades y talentos para marcar una diferencia positiva.

Todos estamos llamados a construir el Reino de Dios en la tierra. A quienes se les ha dado mucho, mucho se les exigirá. A quienes se les ha dado menos, menos se les exigirá. ¡Pero Dios espera algo de cada uno de nosotros! Nadie está exento de la responsabilidad de contribuir a hacer del mundo un lugar mejor. La parábola concluye con una seria advertencia para aquellos que buscan excusas y no hacen ningún esfuerzo por construir el Reino. Jesús dijo: “Porque al que tiene se le dará más y tendrá en abundancia; pero al que no tiene, aun lo poco que tiene se le quitará” (Mateo 25, 29).

Hoy, pidámosle a nuestro Señor que abra nuestros corazones y nos muestre cómo utilizar los talentos que nos ha concedido.

P. Jomi Joseph
